

London Childrens'
Lawyers, ILCFPC,
& LB of Islington
present:

ADVOCACY CPD EVENT: MOCK HEARING
APPLICATION FOR INTERIM REMOVAL IN CARE PROCEEDINGS
 RE-SCHEDULED DATE ***

THURSDAY, 2 DECEMBER 2010
from 5:30pm to 8:30pm

Inner London & City Family Proceedings Court
59-65 Wells Street
London W1A 3AE

The London Childrens Lawyers in partnership with the ILCFPC and the London Borough of Islington are pleased to announce that an Advocacy CPD Event is scheduled to be held on 2 December 2010 in the ILCFPC with District Judge Crichton sitting as the Judge in a mock hearing.

This event will enable participants to engage in a mock trial on the Local Authority's application for interim removal of children in care proceedings. Participants will be provided with the course materials prior to the date of the mock hearing with the expectation that cross-examination will be undertaken during the event (with feedback to be provided after the hearing).

Social workers and legal representatives from the London Borough of Islington will represent the Local Authority and play the roles of the Children's Guardian and Child Expert. Volunteers are needed for the roles of the lay parties and the solicitors for the mother, father, children.

Limited spaces are available for people to attend in an observatory capacity. Please RSVP as this event has a limited capacity of 30.

Registration at 5:00pm for a prompt start at 5:30pm.

3 CPD Points – Accredited by the Solicitors Regulation Authority (3499/LOCL)

There is no fee for this event. Only 30 places available.

RSVP required.

Snacks, tea, and coffee will be provided.

For information and to RSVP please contact VyVy Lewis at vyvy.lewis@edwardsduthie.com