TUESDAY, 5 MARCH 2013 at 6:00pm

7 DIALS CLUB, Covent Garden Community Centre
42 Earlham Street, London WC2H 9LA

You are cordially invited to join us for a presentation and discussion with the following individuals:

Clare Chamberlain: Clare is currently chair of the Hampshire Safeguarding Children Board and Project Manager for the Tri-borough Care Proceedings Pilot in London. She will commence with Kensington and Chelsea as Assistant Director for Family Services at the beginning of March 2013. Clare has worked as a social worker and social work manager in both adults and children's services for over 30 years. Assistant Director of Children and Families Social Work in Islington until 2002 and as an interim in this role in other local authorities in London, she has experience of senior management as well as in the voluntary sector leading a national project about children in care. She has worked on a variety of projects in a freelance capacity.

Mary Ryan: Mary is part of Ryan Tunnard Brown, a small team of consultants with expertise in family law, teaching and social work. Her current work includes project management for the roll out from the Tri-Borough Care Pilot, consultant research fellow for the evaluation of FDAC, joint co-ordinator of the Care Inquiry, and policy work in relation to the provision of health and well-being services to children in the Youth Justice System. Mary is a lawyer who, when in practice, specialised in public law relating to children and families and combined legal practice with social care research, training and development work. She was the legal advisor of Family Rights Group (1982-1992) and then joint chief executive of FRG (1992-1996).
